

COLONEL GILLARD H. CLARKE MEMORIAL TROPHY

The Colonel Gillard H. Clarke Memorial Trophy modeled by Jack Lambert was purchased in 1928 by the National Rifle Association from a bequest of Captain Edward Clarke as a memorial to Colonel Gillard H. Clarke, USA.

The scores listed are from 1920 with the beginning of the NRA Individual Pistol Championship Match which required a pistol of .38 caliber or larger. There was no record of a trophy for this match from 1920 through 1927.

Match Conditions:

- 1920 Army "L" Target
- 1922 Standard American Target
- 1930 Match Course
- 1948 The Center Fire aggregate consisting of 20 shots slow fire, timed fire, rapid fire, plus the National Match Course with the center fire pistol or revolver, in the NRA National Pistol Championships.
