

COAST ARTILLERY TROPHY

The Coast Artillery Trophy is a lidded silver loving cup with the figure of a uniformed U.S. soldier of the 1920's shooting a rifle from the standing position embossed on the side. The trophy was donated to the NRA by the Coast Artillery Association in 1923 to be awarded to the high-scoring Coast Artilleryman in the President's Match.

Match Conditions:

1923	The high-scoring competitor from the Coast Artillery in the President's Match.
1951	The high-scoring competitor from the U.S. Air Force in the President's Match.
1959	A match consisting of 20 shots, 300 yards, rapid fire prone with the manually-operated NRA Match Rifle fired at the National Matches.
1968	20 shots, 300 yards, rapid fire prone with the NRA Match Rifle or Service Rifle.
