

ART SIEVERS TROPHY

The Art Sievers Trophy was presented to the NRA in 1994 by the University of Washington Shooting Club and Friends of Art, in honor of a lifetime of service to his country and the shooting sports. The trophy design combines an optical quality, clear leaded crystal obelisk placed on a two tiered solid walnut base, displaying plates for the engraving of the annual champions' names. The trophy is 26 inches tall. Annual champions will receive an 8-3/4" tall clear lucite replica of the obelisk for the first five years. The NRA will present a trophy plaque for the years following.

Match Conditions:

1994 Champion of the Air Pistol Team event with 4-member team, 60 shots each at 10 meters.
