

ILLINOIS TROPHY

The Illinois Trophy was donated to the NRA by the Illinois State Rifle Association in 2007. The trophy is a large bronze statue, "Timberline", crafted by artist L.E. "Gus" Shafer. It has a walnut base and engraving plates all around, for the names of future winners. The Illinois Trophy will be awarded annually to the High Civilian Competitor using a Service Rifle in the Centenary Trophy Aggregate at the NRA National High Power Rifle Championships.
