

GEORGE ALVES MEMORIAL TROPHY

The George Alves Memorial Trophy was donated by the Delaware State Sportsmen's Association, in memory of one of their members, George Alves, as well as by the Alves family. This trophy is in recognition of Mr. Alves' lifetime dedication to the shooting sports. He was a coach and mentor to hundreds of Smallbore Rifle juniors shooters and teams. Mr. Alves was a long-time volunteer at the National Matches at Camp Perry, and was once named NRA Volunteer of the Year.

The trophy is a large antique silver plated bowl with four pedestal, mounted on a walnut wood base. The trophy originally was awarded in New York State in 1904.
