Barrelguard™ Corrosion Inhibitor Bore Tubes
The easiest and most effective way to prevent corrosion in your gun barrel
Now Available for Non-Military Use!

- Barrelguard™ is proven and time tested. Produced under strict military specs.
- Required by the U.S. Military in the manufacturing and storage of small arms since 1952.
- Barrelguard™ Volatile Corrosion Inhibitor (VCI) is a standard component for many top name firearm manufacturers.

What is Barrelguard™ VCI?

- VCI stands for Volatile Corrosion Inhibitor. Barrelguard™ VCI Bore Tubes are treated with specially engineered chemicals which safely prevent rust in your firearm without the need for messy oil coatings, or less effective methods such as desiccants.
- Barrelguard™ is non-toxic and biodegradeable.

“VCI is the FUTURE of firearm protection” Holt Bodinson - Hunting and Shotgun Editor, Guns Magazine

How does Barrelguard™ VCI work?

- When Barrelguard is inserted into your barrel, it forms a protective molecular layer that prevents moisture, salt, dirt, oxygen and other materials from causing corrosion.

How long does Barrelguard™ VCI protect?

- For the most effective use, Barrelguard™ recommends replacing your VCI bore tube annually.
- Be sure to use Barrelguard™ any time firearms are not in use!

Barrelguard™ come in 2 sizes to fit all calibers of handguns, rifles and shotguns. Select “Rifle” size for .22 through .38 caliber and “Shotgun” size for .40 caliber through 10GA. Barrelguard™ can be cut down to any length for handguns. Every Barrelguard™ comes with a safety flag the extends beyond the barrel as a reminder that it is in use.

Barrelguard normally comes in a 5-pack container, but as a special offer to NRA members, clubs, and trainers, you will receive an 8-pack for the same price.
